Bucharest, January 19, 2021

Dear Colleagues, Presidents of Economic and Social Councils,

I would like to take this opportunity to let you know that according to the law on the functioning of the Romanian Economic and Social Council, my four-year term of office as President of the ESC has been completed.

I would like to thank each of you for sharing your professional experience and for our fruitful collaboration, which have contributed to our working together as a team committed to a common purpose. Working together with you during my term of office has been truly rewarding and I appreciate all your contributions which have made clear that Economic and Social Councils have an important role at national, European and international level.

I hope that the joint efforts of our Economic and Social Councils will continue to promote dialogue between economic and social partners around the world and to contribute to the prosperity and development of our populations.

I will carry on my activity in the ESC as a member and it will always be a pleasure to take part in the activities of AICESIS and of UCESIF, particularly since you have showed confidence in me by electing me as Honorary President.

I wish you all every success in your endeavours as Presidents of your councils.

Sincerely yours,

Iacob Baci
